

PRE-CONSTRUCTION INFORMATION TO BE PROVIDED BY THE CLIENT

1. Hazards within the existing structure.	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Asbestos
Hot Water or Steam under pressure
Unstable structures
Chemicals at temperature or pressure
Chemicals used within the existing building
Fragile roofs
Rising damp or other water damage
Exceptional Fire Hazards
Risks from adjacent Buildings
2. Services in and around the Site	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Gas
Water
Electricity
Oil pipelines
Telephones
Computer cables
Wet/Dry risers
Drainage
3. Surrounding land and subsurface	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Ground movement / Bearing Capacity

Contamination
Basements
Other hazards, underground tanks etc.
4. Restrictions on the Site	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Planning or land use restrictions
Will site traffic need special arrangements?
Public Rights of Way over/adjacent to the site
Restricted hours of work
Access for vehicles and emergency services to other parts of the site
5. Existing Drawings or documentation	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Are there any drawings available?
Is there an existing Health and Safety File for the site?
Company Safety Policy for visiting contractors
Company Permit to Work arrangements
6. Welfare Facilities	Yes	No	Don't know	Comment
Are existing welfare facilities available for use by the contractors?
First Aid or Medical facilities

This is by no means an exhaustive list and any other relevant information known should be provided to the Principal Designer.